THE HERALD.
GREATEST FAMILY WEEKLY

FARM JOURNAL
Great Offer. From now to Dec, 1903, Nearly 5 Years.
By special arrangement made with the publishers of the FARM JOURNAL we are enabled to offer that paper to every subscriber who pays for THE HERALD one year ahead for only $1.00 both papers for the price of ours only; our paper one year and the FARM JOURNAL from now until December 1903, nearly 5 years. The FARM JOURNAL is an old established paper enjoying great popularity, one of the best and most useful farm papers published.
This offer should be accepted without delay.

The days are gradually lengthening.

Our beautiful (?) side-walks were snowed under Monday.

Deputy Sheriff Pieratt closed the store of Wm. Clark on attachment on Monday last.

Robt. J. McLin left Monday for Torront on a business trip, and will be absent for a week or two.

Willie Pieratt is at Ezel visiting his brothers Jim and Silas, who are here on a visit from Texas.

J. L. Booker, insurance agent of Richmond, committed suicide by taking carbolic acid, last Thursday.

Dr. Andy Nickell was summoned by telephone on Tuesday night to Maytown to see Harve Nickell, who was said to have fever.

Prof. Cord, Hon. W. O. Mize and John M. Rose awaited of the freeze Monday and filled their ice houses with ice about 5 inches thick.

J. T. Day shipped his planer to Maytown Wednesday, where Mr. Curtis, the machinist, will thoroughly repair it and bring back and set it up here.

Miss Lula Strong, of Jackson, who is visiting Dr. John Taulbee and family, accompanied by Miss Callie, paid THE HERALD office a very pleasant call Wednesday.

John M. Rose last week shipped from Glencairn two car loads of walnut timber, 54 logs, which go to Liverpool, England. Jack Scott, of Daysboro, had about 5,500 feet in the shipment.

The following fourth-class postmasters for Kentucky were appointed December 27th: Caledonia, Trigg county, W. M. Woodington; Isomville, Elliott county, Thos. J. Mason; Halcorn, Elliott county, J. E. Johnson.

F. A. LYON, JR.,
Leading Insurance Agent
of Eastern Kentucky.
Offices: Beattyville and Jackson.

There have been poultry books printed costing fifteen dollars and more, but there never has been one at any price with more beautiful colored reproduction of poultry, than those found in Biggle Poultry Book, an announcement of which appears in another column. The paintings were made direct from best birds of the different breeds, and the coloring and characteristic shape of each breed are perfect. As for the text, there never was a book printed containing more practical, level-headed information. Its chapters include, "Eggs for Hatching," "Hatching the Eggs," "Care of Chicks with Hens and Brooders," "The Successful Care of Incubators," "The Farmer's Flock," "The Village Henery," chapters on "Breeds," "Fattening and Marketing" and "Diseases and Remedies, with the old and new school methods of treatment. One man wrote the publishers that "The mottoes alone at each chapter heading were worth the cost of the book." Twenty thousand copies of this admirable work have been printed. See advertisement of The Biggle Book in this week's issue of THE HERALD. The price of each is 50 cents, free by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

The following good joke is on John Rose, our popular blacksmith. Thrasher Combs was here Friday last, and wanting his mare shod sent John D., the colored hostler at Pieratt's stable, after Mr. Rose, who said he would be up as soon as he got dinner. The boy returned and put Mr. Combs' mare in the stable, and in the meantime Wiley Perkins rode his black mare into town and hitched her near the blacksmith shop. Mr. Rose came up town and seeing Mr. Perkins' mare, which is quite like Mr. Combs' animal, he went to work and shod her. It is needless to say that Thrasher's animal went shoeless, and the question now is, who is responsible to Mr. Rose for shoeing Mr. Perkins' animal.

C. E. French closed his second years labor with the church at Salt Lick, Bath county, Christmas week. Besides always paying his salary in full, the church showed their appreciation by sending to him and wife a large box just before Christmas, consisting of preserves, canned fruits, staple groceries, etc., but space is too limited to give names of donors or enumerate the articles. Suffice that it comprised everything good to eat and was in profusion. To say that they received it gratefully is putting it very lightly indeed. In many other ways have members of the church manifested their love in the first two years. The people at Salt Lick know how to treat a preacher.

I want to let the people who suffer from rheumatism and sciatica know that Chamberlain's Pain Balm relieved me after a number of other medicines and a doctor had failed. It is the best liniment I have ever known of.—J. A. Dodgen, Alpharetta, Ga. Thousands have been cured of rheumatism by this remedy. One application relieves the pain. For sale by J. T. Day, Druggist.

Weed Hall, who was shot sometime in October by Marlon Toliver, and who two weeks ago today was removed to the residence of his brother Tom, on Lacy creek, died Wednesday night. Toliver, who has been on bond pending result of Hall's wound, was served with a new writ, but with what result we have not learned as we go to press.

William Howard DeBusk, of Paragon, Morgan county, and Miss Mary Smith, of Lagrange, Ky., were married on Wednesday, Dec. 27th, at the residence of the bride's parents. THE HERALD extends congratulations to Howard and his bride, and wishes for them a prosperous and happy future.

Blood and Nerves are very closely related. Keep the blood rich, pure and healthy, with Hood's Sarsaparilla and you will have no nervousness.

Hood's Pills are best after-dinner pills, aid digestion, prevent constipation.

Monroe Nickell, who has lived on the Jim Nickell fork of Grassy, Morgan county, nearly or quite all his life, last week moved to town and occupies the property of F. M. Long, in Dickville, a suburb of Hazel Green.

Moody Lacy, who enlisted in the Twenty-second United States infantry in December, 1898, and who was sent to the Philippines for service, is at home awaiting his final discharge. Owing to failing health he was sent from the Philippines in the early summer of last year to the general hospital at San Francisco, where he has been ever since. He will receive his discharge soon on account of disability, and henceforth try the life of a civilian.

Mrs. J. H. Amyx, of Hazel Green, Ky., is here visiting her two sons, Dr. J. S. and C. B. Amyx. C. B. Amyx, of this place, bought of James Crawford, of Merwin, two fine jacks for which he paid in the neighborhood of $1500.—Amsterdam (Mo.) Breeze.

John B. Davis left Sunday morning for Frankfort, where he is a witness in favor of Milburn & Son, in their suit against Magoffin county, which is on trial in the United States court. Milburn & Son are the contractors who built the Magoffin county court house, and their claim has never been adjusted.

If your horse or mule has a lump, bunch, bone spavine, curb, splint or any like ailment, go to John M. Rose and get a bottle of Quinn's Ointment, which will remove the obstacle.

FOR SALE:—The Nicholasville Democrat, weekly, on easy terms. Paper is paying a nice dividend and has a good circulation among the best people. Three presses, a Washington Hand Press, a Universal (on which The Democrat is now printed), and a Gordon jobber. Abundance of news and job type, 4 imposing stones, 150 news and job cases, 2 cabinets, racks, chairs, galleys, furniture, and everything needed in a first-class office. New gasoline engine. Paper is doing a good business. Only reason for selling is the fact that the owner is going into other business. Address, W. R. HARRIS, Nicholasville, Ky.

Send one dollar to the Frankfort Daily State Democrat and get that paper during the entire session. Full proceedings published each day, and particulars regarding the contests for state offices.

Jimmie James and Miss Frances Sweeney, of Maytown, will be united in the holy bonds of wedlock today at the residence of the bride's parents, Jack Sweeney and wife.—Rev. C. E. French will officiate. THE HERALD extends congratulations.

Hon. Joseph P. Rose, representative of this district in the general assembly, which convened on Tuesday, left Saturday for Frankfort.

A GREAT record of cures, unequalled in medical history, proves Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses merit unknown to any other MEDICINE.

A little boy, aged about 2 years, son of Mrs. Fronie Nickell, died on Wednesday, December 20th.

A little daughter of South Coldiron died on Sunday evening, December 31st, of brain fever.
